

Kalam to deliver Lakdawala Lecture

NEW DELHI: Former President A. P. J. Abdul Kalam will deliver the 11th D. T. Lakdawala Memorial Lecture on “Sustainable development and leadership” at Mavlankar Hall here on August 18 as part of the silver jubilee celebrations of the Institute of Social Sciences. “Re-imagining India and Other Essays” — the ten previous lectures by Amartya Sen, Noam Chomsky, Anthony Giddens, Joseph Stieglitz and others -- will be released on the occasion. Lord Bikhu Parekh will be the guest. Dr. U. R. Ananthamurthy will preside.
