

The Centre for Ethics, Politics and Global Affairs (EPAG)

The Institute of Social Sciences is happy to announce the setting up of a new Centre - The Centre for Ethics, Politics and Global Affairs (EPAG). The Centre is the first of its kind committed to academic research on ethical issues in India. It aims to provide a trans-disciplinary platform to engage with ethical issues in politics, policy and the professions across local, national and global dimensions keeping in view the complex challenges to contemporary governance. The EPAG platform welcomes collaborative research and ethical consultancy projects as well as outreach programmes in partnership with academic institutions, professional associations and the industry.

Prof. Ashok Acharya of the Department of Political Science, University of Delhi, will lead the Centre in an honorary capacity.

The Centre's launch today (Oct 17, 2018) coincides with the Global Ethics Day 2018.
