

Institute of Social Sciences

Subject: Invitation for Workshop

Dear Sir/Ma'am,

We are pleased to extend an invitation to you to participate in a one-day workshop on Legal Remedies for Human Trafficking Victims on March 5, 2019 at the Institute of Social Sciences in New Delhi. This is a collaborative program between the Washington, D.C. based Human Trafficking Legal Center, the Institute of Social Sciences, and Free the Slaves.

The overall objective of the workshop is for participants to discuss international strategic litigation to combat human trafficking. The goal of the workshop is to identify litigation strategies to hold traffickers accountable and secure compensation for trafficking victims.

The workshop will focus on international and extra-territorial legal remedies, emphasizing victim-witness preparation, victim-witness representation, civil litigation, and compensation for survivors. The workshop will provide an opportunity to share expertise and interact with legal professionals, paralegals, case managers, and civil society organizations focused on legal remedies for victims of human trafficking.

We know you are experienced in the field of migration and trafficking and want to hear from you about what you are witnessing in the field. Specifically, the workshop will explore human trafficking and where and in what industries trafficking of Indian citizens is occurring. We hope to explore these topics within the program. In this context, we request you to send a lawyer, case handling officer, or researcher to participate in the workshop.

Please confirm your organization's participation with the name of the participant and organization name before February 22, 2019. To confirm, please send an email or WhatsApp message to Sarah Bessell: sbessell@htlegalcenter.org or +1 310 613 6482.

Sincerely,

The Human Trafficking Legal Center
Institute of Social Sciences
Free the Slaves